justice

About the Learning Center

The Learning Center educates the public about the role of the Michigan court system in everyday life.

The award-winning gallery is filled with activities designed for visitors from students to adults. Video, computer programs, photographs, text, and hands-on activities encourage visitors to answer questions, explore information, and role play.

Thousands visit the Learning Center every year for tours and special programs, and volunteers are an integral part of their experience.

Volunteer Opportunities

The Learning Center welcomes those who would like to contribute their time and talents to assist in educating students and the public about Michigan's judicial branch of government. Serving as a Learning Center volunteer provides rewarding opportunities.

- Docents: Give guided group tours, present school group programs.
- Clerical: Assemble visitor materials, prepare mailings, organize Learning Center materials.
- Special Projects: Assist in preparing programs and resource materials for schools and other groups.
- Internships: A limited number of unpaid internships for students are available. The student is responsible for arranging to receive credit.

Join Us!

Interested individuals must submit an application and meet the eligibility guidelines of the Court. All applicants will be notified as to their eligibility. Those who qualify will be asked to come in for an interview.

Please note that new volunteers are required to attend an orientation session and must follow the policies and procedures outlined in the Volunteer Handbook. All volunteers are asked to commit to at least eight hours of service each month. (Some positions have additional training and time commitments.)
